

The Server asks the Client which position they want to move the Totem to; if it is occupied, it asks again. After the Card Selection Phase, the Server places the Totems back on the Order Card and then distributes the food.